Boot Camp Project Group Agreements

Add this file to your team's repo next to the README.md and call it group-agreement.docx.

What is your team name?__Code Breakers__(Project#1 Team#4)_____

What is your project about? _(Yelp and SpotHero APIs)_restaurant search of specific area and near by parking area in the city. See the README.md for more info.

What role(s) will everyone on the team hold: Tamara Wilhite: Front-End-Side: (html, css, css framework, colab w/ API.) Brahm Gicheru: Yelp server API: (fetching, data pulling, organizing w/ comments for the FE developer) DK: SpotHero server API: same as other API

How often will you have meetings? How long? Everyday status update meeting via Zoom/Slack/conference call (10-15 mins); Minimum of two longgggg meetings (~60mins) outside of class time for planning, testing, discussing, etc.

How will you keep track of tasks? GitHub issue, projects, slacks/status update meeting/ txt msg

What if someone misses a deadline? We will use escalation force (1. Friendly reminder, 2. Aggressive reminder, 3. Call him/her reminder, 4. Reaching out to instructors, 5. Throw your fist up and let's fight!)

What happens if someone misses a meeting? What is their responsibility? The team's responsibility?
As long as there is an active communication, we will be ok. No Ghosting!! Personal issues, life issues, etc .. we know it happens. Responsibility: inform the team members; other TM members provide the highlights of the meetings for the person who missed it.

How does each team member like to receive feedback? TW: open-minded, constructive yet gentle criticisms w/solution for the growth. DK: say whatever you want. Brahm Gicheru: open-minded and constructive criticisms welcome.

What if there is friction between members? How will you address it?

__open and honest conversation, talk it out. We are all adults.__

Other Group Agreements:

__miss more than three meetings, you are buying pizza!; if you are stuck on your portion of the project, you inform others (sometimes it's easier to talk to others to figure things out).__
